Policy and Arbitration Policy, schedule, prices are subject to change without notice. If there is a dispute between you and JING, both parties agree to submit to binding arbitration, using the American Arbitration Association’s (AAA) Commercial Arbitration Rules (Rules). Arbitration means that neither you nor JING can sue each other in court over the dispute; instead, a neutral arbitrator will decide the matter, not a judge or jury. The arbitration shall be held at the AAA office nearest to the school Student joined, and all arbitration will be done according to AAA’s Rules and applicable rules of the California Code of Civil Procedure. California law shall govern all disputes.

Arbitration will cover all disputes related to Student’s membership and this Agreement, including financial obligations, facilities, representations, personal injury, property, contact, and tort damage of any kind. If there is any dispute over the applicability of arbitration, only an Arbitrator, not a court, may decide upon applicability of arbitration; if such a situation occurs, the Arbitrator must hold a separate hearing on the applicability of arbitration before arbitration may proceed

If the arbitration proceeds further, the Arbitrator is limited to the terms of this Agreement. Whether Student or JING prevails in the arbitration, the maximum an Arbitrator may award is the cost of Student’s current membership.

JING is not bound by any verbal agreements, nor by any arrangement not specifically stated in this agreement.

I understand that JING is a Heritage school and not a daycare. I understand that JING is a Heritage school and as such, my child(ren) is/are free to come and go and if my child(ren) are to stay at their facility, it is because of my direction and not the school’s. JING is "exempt from child care licensure, and that attendance at a heritage school does not satisfy California's compulsory education requirements pursuant to Section 48200."

Entire Agreement and Enforcement: You acknowledge that neither JING nor anyone else made any representations or promises upon which you relied that are not stated in this Agreement. This document contains the entire agreement between you and JING and replaces any prior written agreement. If a court declares any part of this Agreement invalid, it will not invalidate the remaining parts, which continue unaffected. If JING does not enforce any right in this Agreement for any reason, JING does not waive its right to enforce it later.
